PRESS RELEASE

January 18, 2010 6:24 p.m.

Case # 10-3761

On January 18, 2010 at approximately 6:24 p.m., officers from the Redding Police Department responded to the Shopko store at 55 Lake Boulevard in regard to a robbery that had just occurred.

Employees reported that a white male adult entered the pharmacy section of the Shopko store and demanded that a store clerk open the medication cabinet. The suspect also simulated having a handgun in his waistband. The suspect then gathered an unknown amount of medication that included Oxycontin and Morphine and fled the scene on foot.

The suspect was described as a male white adult, approximately 25 years of age, approximately six feet tall, approximately 200 pounds and wearing dark clothing and a black ski mask. Officers searched the area with the use of a canine, with negative results.

This investigation is ongoing and has been referred to the Redding Police Department Investigations Division. Anyone with information in regard to this incident should contact the Redding Police Department Investigations Division at 530 225-4214.
